The Chronicle's Weather Report.

Washington, D. C., July 7.—
Forecast for Virginia frequent showers; slightly cooler; south winds. For North Carolina and South Carolina showers; stationary temperature; southwest winds.

IN THE LOBBIES AND ON THE STREETS.

Rev. J. W. Wellons, of Franklinton, was here yesterday.

The merry sound of the carpenter's hammer will soon be heard in Idlewild.

A special invitation is extended to the ladies to attend the sale this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, and we hope to see a good many out.

Don't forget the grand excursion to Littleton to-morrow. Go and enjoy yourself. The round trip costs only one dollar.

Work is progressing on the Electric Street Railway. A new invoice of material has been received and it is expected that cars will be running by August 15th.

A free ride—free lemonade—and a chance to make money in buying a lot. These are the pleasures offered to everybody at the Idlewild sale this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Judge Avery was in the city yesterday and received the cordial grasp of the hand of many friends. No public man is held in higher esteem in Raleigh than Justice Avery.

The injury to Master Claude Denson, by an explosion on July 4th, is slight, and he had sufficiently recovered for Capt. Denson to leave yesterday for Chattanooga, Tenn., where he responds to the address of welcome at the Southern Teachers' Assembly.

Rev. E. L. Pell, editor of the Bible Reader, was in the city yesterday. He tells us that work will begin shortly on the new Methodist church at Franklinton and that it will be the handsomest church ever erected in a North Carolina village.

The Fire Committee of the Board of Aldermen has decided to recommend that an appropriation of $100 be made to defray the expense of the Capital Hose Company to Durham on the occasion of the tournament of the State Fireman's Association at Durham. The sum of $15 was also appropriated for appliances to be owned and used by the company.

FOLKS WHO TRAVEL.

Mr. W. W. Long, member of the House from Warren, is in the city.

Misses J. Woodward and Mattie Woodward have gone to Burlington, N. C., to spend a few days.

Mr. H. A. Creagh, head clerk at Swindell's, has gone to New Bern and Morehead on a ten day's vacation.

Mr. E. W. Lyon and wife left last night for Thomasville, where they will spend a short time and then go North for their summer.

F. H. Busbee, Esq., is in Washington, trying to secure the $26,000 due the State on the land scrip fund. He hopes and expects to be successful.

Capt. Arrington, of Weldon, is here and predicts great things for Weldon in the near future. It has the advantages and we believe will succeed.

Capt. W. T. Dortch, of Goldsboro, is in the city to present the claims of Goldsboro as the best place for the location of the Odd Fellows' Orphan Home.

RALEIGH'S FIRST PUBLIC SALE OF LOTS.

The Growth and Progress of the City will be Affected by It.

FREE 'BUSSES FOR ALL.

To-Day is the Day—A Golden Opportunity—The Ladies are All Invited.

Property is cheaper in Raleigh to-day than it will ever be again.

Why? Well, because the people are waking up, and are beginning to get a move on them; people who have been asleep for thirty years are beginning to open their eyes and see if they don't get up and hustle they will be covered up in the dust.

There are MANY of the very best reasons why Raleigh should be one of the foremost cities of the South if her people will just come to the front now, and with UNITED efforts work and pull for the best interests of Raleigh. Nothing on earth will keep her back.

To-day is the day for the big sale of Idlewild lots.

This is beautiful property, in few blocks of the Capitol, and will be sold at auction to the highest bidder. Now is your time to invest a little money.

Don't fail to attend the sale. Free transportation to and from the grounds. Busses and hacks will start from J. M. Broughton & Co's. office, 303 Fayetteville St. this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Go out boys and buy you a lot. The terms are easy: One-fourth cash, balance in one, two and three years, with six per cent. interest.

MR. BUSBEE'S CONDITION.

He Was Extremely Nervous and Restless Yesterday.

July 7th, 10 p. m.—Grand Sire Busbee's condition is fluctuating after sixty hours of uninterrupted improvement. He was much disturbed last night and in consequence thereof is extremely nervous and restless to-day.

E. BURKE HAYWOOD, M. D.
JAMES MCKEE, M. D.
HUBERT HAYWOOD, M. D.

At least 1,000 people ought to go to the Idlewild sale to-day at 3:30 p. m. Free hacks and refreshments served.

The Funeral of Mrs. Lambeth.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Sallie J. Lambeth was held in Edenton Street Methodist Church yesterday at ten o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Cordon, her pastor, who made a few remarks appropriate to the sad occasion. After the services at the church a large number followed the body to its last resting place in Oakwood.

Aims of the Alliance.

That was the subject of a speech delivered at Oxford yesterday by Col. L. L. Polk to a large and enthusiastic crowd.

The CHRONICLE will give a full report of it to-morrow, the account of the electrocution in New York taking up all our space to-day.

We are offering some big bargains in midsummer millinery, as we do not carry over trimmed stock.

MISS MAGGIE REESE,
209 Fayetteville St.

All flowers for evening dresses on millinery to be closed out at less than cost. All white straw hats at a sacrifice, at

MISS MAGGIE REESE'S.

THE CAPE FEAR SHINGLE CO.

Application for a Receiver Made by the Court.

Yesterday, in chambers before Judge Whitaker, the application of the creditors of the Cape Fear Shingle Co., of Harnett county, was heard. The property of this company was advertised for sale under the confessed judgments in favor of L. Grimm. The creditors at Fayetteville and elsewhere applied to have an injunction against the sale and for the appointment of a receiver. They were represented by Duncan Rose, Esq., and the defendants by Col. J. W. Hinsdale, W. E. Murchison and O. T. Spears. The case was postponed until next Tuesday, when argument will be heard by Judge Whitaker.

Refreshments served free at the Idlewild sale this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Go!

THE ODD FELLOW'S ORPHAN HOME.

The Committee Will Select Location To-Day.

The Committee appointed by the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows to select the site and consider bids for the location of the Odd Fellow's Orphan Home will meet in Raleigh to-day. The Committee is composed of the following:

Jno. F. Bruton, Esq., of Wilson, Grand Master.

W. C. Douglass, of Carthage; Jonathan White, of Greenville; A. H. A. Williams, of Oxford; N. Jacobi, of Wilmington; C. D. Benbow, of Greensboro; C. B. Edwards, of Raleigh.

Bids will be made by several towns and cities. Among others, Goldsboro, Wilmington, Carthage and Winston.

Religious Notice.

Prayer-meeting to-night (Wednesday) at 8 o'clock at Christian church. All are invited to attend. After prayer-meeting the monthly business meeting will be held. Every member is urgently requested to be present. Business of importance is to be transacted.

Special Notices.

Before Moving

We are determined to reduce our present stock to very small proportions, and to do this we know that low prices alone will enable us to do so, hence each clerk in the store has instructions to sell goods regardless of price—to make a price that will suit the customer. We know human nature well, and if the price is low enough, many people will lay in a supply whether they need the goods or not. We have about twenty five days more before we begin moving.

Respectfully,
D. T. SWINDELL.

SEEN 27 MILES.

Raleigh's Fourth of July Fireworks were Seen in Chapel Hill.

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., July 7.—The fireworks at Raleigh on 4th of July were seen from Piney Prospect, Chapel Hill, a distance of 27 miles. The red colors were most distinct.

A "CONJURE DOCTOR"
CAUSED MURDER.

A Negro Woman Waylays and Kills Another in Wilson.

THE RULE OF SUPERSTITION NOT ENDED.

The Woman Murderess is Found in Bed and Arrested—She Makes a Confession.

(Special to State Chronicle.)

WILSON, N. C., July 7.—Our town was thrown into a ripple of excitement last night by the shooting of the wife of Rev. O. L. W. Smith, a negro preacher. She was waylaid and shot on her way from church by Millie Sutton. The cause of the rash deed is supposed to be as follows: Some time since Millie Sutton's brother, mother and son died within a short interval. Millie visited a "conjure doctor," who told him that Smith's wife had "conjured" her and those of her people who had died. Millie brooded over the matter and last week purchased a double-action revolver. Last night there was preaching in the negro church here. Millie waited outside, a short distance from the church, and when the Smith woman came along, stepped in front of her, stared deliberately in her face to make sure she was right, and then shot her through the heart. Millie fled. The Smith woman screamed once or twice and fell dead. The police were on hand in a few minutes, and, upon searching, found Millie Sutton in bed. She was arrested and jailed. This morning Deputy Coroner Dr. C. E. Moore, summoned a jury and held an inquest. Dr. Albert Anderson made the examination. He found that the murdered woman was shot through the lower regions of the heart, and death must have resulted almost instantly.

Millie Sutton made a confession, saying she did the deed and that the revolver would be found in a tow sack in the weeds in the back of her garden. The police found the revolver just as she stated. The jury arrived at a verdict that Lou Smith came to her death by a gun shot wound at the hands of Millie Sutton. In default of bond she was jailed. The negroes are very much excited over the bloody deed, but no trouble is anticipated.

Rev. O. L. W. Smith is a highly respected colored minister, and his wife was looked upon as a worthy companion. Millie Sutton is a half demented negro woman.

DIED.

The CHRONICLE failed yesterday to record the sad death of Miss Effie M. Whitaker, aged 23 years, who died at the residence of her father, Wesley Whitaker, Esq., on East Hargett St., on the night of the 4th inst.

Effie was a bright Christian—she faced death with a smile, and spoke of departing this life with a cheerfulness, which gave great consolation to her aged father, her mother and little sister.

Goldsboro, Kinston, Snow Hill and Wilson papers please notice.

Col. John F. Bruton, of Wilson, Grand Master of the I. O. O. F. in North Carolina, is in the city. He is here as a member of the committee to locate the Orphan Asylum for the Odd Fellows.

A free hack will carry you out to the sale of Idlewild lots at 3:30 o'clock to-day. Go!

It is as good as a circus to hear Col. Pete Akers tell how to build up a town. He will do it this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at Idlewild sale. Go out; hear him; and help build up your town.
